EXAMINER'S AMENDMENT

Following the entry of the amendment filed 10/24/2003, the claims 6-39 are pending.

1. An examiner's amendment to the record appears below. Should the changes and/or additions be unacceptable to applicant, an amendment may be filed as provided by 37 CFR 1.312. To ensure consideration of such an amendment, it MUST be submitted no later than the payment of the issue fee.

Authorization for this examiner's amendment was given in a telephone interview with Mr. Gordon M. Stewart on January 29, 2004.

2. The application has been amended as follows:

Cancel claims 21-39.

In claim 6, line 1, delete "of reading fluorescence signals from an array of chemical moieties, comprising: illuminating multiple parallel lines", insert -- according to claim 6, wherein the paths are parallel lines, and --.

In claim 6, line 3, delete "across the array and detecting any resulting fluorescence,"

3. The following is an examiner's statement of reasons for allowance:

Concerning claims 6-20, no prior art has been found teachings or suggesting the method of reading fluorescence signals from an array of chemical moieties comprising: illuminating multiple paths across the array wherein the spatial order of illuminating paths in the crosswise direction is not the same as their order in time.

The closest prior art is the reference of Berndt (US patent, 5,891,739, issued April 6, 1999). Berndt discloses a method of illuminating a sample container which has multiple partial samples arranged in a spatial array (See column 2, lines 48-54 and lines 64-67). The sample container is illuminated with an excitation light (See column 6, lines 62-67). Berndt et al. do not disclose the way to illuminate the sample container in a crosswise direction, wherein the spatial order of illuminating paths in the crosswise direction is not the same as their order in time.

Any comments considered necessary by applicant must be submitted no later than the payment of the issue fee and, to avoid processing delays, should preferably accompany the issue fee. Such submissions should be clearly labeled "Comments on Statement of Reasons for Allowance."
